MEMORANDUM FOR: F.W.M. Janney
Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : The Letter [REDACTED] STATINTL
[REDACTED] STATINTL

With respect to your letter, I have two suggestions.

a. The first is a minor point of grammar: "request" in the first line needs an s at the end.

b. The second is more consequential. At some point in the letter, either as the third paragraph or the penultimate paragraph, please stick in language conveying the following, which I want to get clearly on the record:

STATINTL We have requested this extension because of [REDACTED] splendid performance in her important position. As the DCI's Deputy for National Intelligence Officers (Mr. Carver) explained in his recent telephone conversation with [REDACTED] STATINTL
STATINTL however, the DCI does not want to stand in the way of any assignments within her own service for which [REDACTED] might be considered and which she might want to take. Consequently, though we hope we will be able to avail ourselves of her services for the period of this extension, should a choice position within the Department become available for which she is a candidate, this extension should not be construed as a bar to her being considered for it.

STATINTL

George A. Carver, Jr.
Deputy for National Intelligence Officers
